BEST CHILDREN'S ENTERTAINER CRITTERMAN

At America's Teaching Zoo, David Kleven got a degree that turned him into Critterman. He also found the woman who became Mrs. Critterman and convinced him to move to Dallas. Now he's coming to your party. We suggest going with either the Squirm Factor or Junior Safari packages. Imagine your kid's surprise when Zuka, the ring-tailed lemur, shows up for his birthday. Kleven has named almost all of his 65 animals, but don't ask him which animal's his favorite. He says that's like choosing among kids. critterman.com. 940-365-9741.
